Everybody Uses the Telephone Directory

IF YOU WANT TO BECOME KNOWN

Advertise in the Telephone Directory

Which has obvious advantages over any other medium.

IT gets inside the office door and into the home; it reaches the business man and housewife. Magazines and newspapers do this, but they are short lived. The Telephone Directory gets there and stays there----it is on duty constantly, day and night, every day in the year.

No Objectionable Advertisements will be Accepted

The Telephone Directory as an Advertising Medium

IS PARTICULARLY USEFUL TO CONCERNS CATERING TO TELEPHONE TRADE

Telephone Directory Advertising

The Telephone Directory in any community is now so important as the list of business houses, prominent residents, etc., that the position it occupies in the business world is unique.

It is the only reference book kept up to date that is generally circulated, and of necessity is revised more often than any other local publication, and its circulation is usually much greater.

It is on duty constantly, day and night, every day in the year and reaches everybody.

It might surprise you yourself, for instance, to learn how much you rely on it as an address list and business guide.

Where do we usually see the telephone book?

Isn't it usually within a foot of the telephone? Isn't it often nailed there, in fact?

The telephone and the telephone book are inseparable, and if anybody takes one away from the other there is an immediate protest.

These two modern conveniences are kept together because one must be used with the other. On this account, and owing to its continual use, the Telephone Directory, as an advertising medium, is invaluable.

Over 700,000 Telephone Calls

are made in San Francisco and vicinity each day

¶ A large proportion of these messages are purchasing orders or relate to buying or selling. This fact is of vital interest to shopkeepers. It indicates that the telephone system is the great channel through which flows a large part of the City's trade :: :: :: :: :: ::

Large Shopkeepers are well aware of this fact, and have installed many telephones to serve as inlets for telephone orders. In many cases telephone trade constitutes a large proportion of their business :: ::

Small Shopkeepers can get their share of this trade—providing they have telephone facilities and give prompt attention to telephone orders. Telephone buying is on the increase, and the telephone is now as necessary to the modern shopkeeper as is his stock of goods

The constant use of the Telephone Directory has created for the shopkeeper a valuable medium in which to advertise his wares :: :: :: :: :: :: ::

Their Seven League Boots.

A LITTLE group of men were sitting in the smoking room of a San Francisco hotel one night telling stories and discussing things generally. The conversation lagged for a brief moment, during which the faint but commanding tinkling of a telephone bell was heard.

Brown, a big, jolly fellow who represented a large manufacturing concern in a Southern city, listened to the distant ringing of the bell for a second, and then turned the conversation by saying:

"Bless'd if I see how we could do business nowadays without the long distance telephone. Got a call from the house this afternoon with a tip that starts me for Seattle first thing in the morning. Portland is usually my next stop."

"That's so," chimed in another, "I used the long distance the other day when I was at Sacramento. I got a call to go back to San Francisco. Hadn't seen a half dozen of my upstate customers. So I called them on the telephone and took orders for over a thousand dollars' worth of goods. What did it cost? Oh, the toll charges were only $10.35, which was a small percentage on sales when you consider time and traveling expenses."

"Well," said the veteran of the group, "I found the long distance telephone mighty useful when I was in a train wreck in Oregon last spring. The morning papers were full of the account of the wreck. I knew that my wife would be about worried to death until she knew I was safe. I got to a Bell telephone as quickly as I could, and you bet she was glad to hear my voice and to learn that I was not hurt."

"The Bell long distance makes a hit with me," said the man from Los Angeles. "When I made my last trip, we were expecting a new arrival in our house, but I simply had to go. I was right here in this hotel when my brother Jim called me on the long distance and said: 'Congratulations, old man! It's a boy! Mother and child doing nicely.' It was a big relief, I can tell you."

"Long distance call for James B. Smith!" cried a hotel page, approaching the group.

"Well, boys, I may have another telephone story to add to the collection," said Smith as he arose to answer the call.

"Which illustrates just what we were talking about," said the man from Los Angeles. "We seldom get beyond the reach of the Bell Long Distance Telephone Service."

—American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

164,000 copies of this issue will be printed to supply present and new subscribers in San Francisco and vicinity.

91,343 is the actual number of subscribers in San Francisco having a copy of this issue.

54,226 copies are distributed to subscribers in the other cities and towns around the bay.

But the real importance of the San Francisco Bay Counties Telephone Directory as an advertising medium is even greater than is indicated by its big circulation.

1. It is the only medium that is an everyday necessity to the public;
2. It is the only medium that can not be read at one sitting and then laid aside and forgotten;
3. It is the only medium that is consulted by more than seven hundred thousand people daily.

The Economy of Adequate Telephone Facilities

A BUSINESS establishment inadequately equipped with telephone service may save a few dollars each year on its telephone charges but lose a much larger amount on account of the time wasted by its officers and employees. Of even greater seriousness is the fact that customers, discouraged because of inability or delay in reaching the concern, will transfer their trade to some more progressive establishment.

TRUE economy equips an organization with the means of conducting its business in a systematic way, and with the least possible loss of time and energy on the part of its working force. The additional expense of a few dollars per year in telephone equipment may result in the saving of hundreds by increasing the working capacity of the organization and facilitating communication with customers.

Are Your Telephone Facilities Adequate?

If you are in doubt about it notify us, and we will make an investigation to determine what changes, if any, are needed. No obligation is incurred by asking for such investigation. Telephone nearest Contract Office and a representative will call.
